

Terms and conditions

1. Schools in Leicester City or Leicester City Traded Services Schools (St Thomas Aquinas CMAT and Lionheart Academies Trust schools) are eligible to enter.
2. Schools need to be registered with the Jane Goodall's Roots and Shoots Programme (if they aren't already) – which is completely free and can be done at www.rootsnshoots.org.uk/sign-me-up
2. Schools can submit as many entries as they wish from early years through to key stage 5.
3. Deadline for entries is 31 August 2021. Entries need to be emailed to Eco-Schools@leicester.gov.uk in either .pdf, .jpg or .doc format.
4. Entries can be submitted by schools or individuals.
5. Winners will be announced on a special online event taking place on Wednesday 22 September 2021 during Great Big Green Week 2021 (and available on YouTube afterwards).
6. There are 5 categories (EYFS, KS1, KS2, KS3, KS4 & KS5). The winner of each category will receive an age appropriate Jane Goodall Book. The overall winner will receive a signed Jane Goodall Book for themselves as well as their school.
7. Judging will take place in early September 2021 including representatives from Leicester City Council and Jane Goodall's Roots and Shoots.
8. Entries after the deadline will not be accepted. Judges' decision is final.
